DEDICATION

Dr. Henry Kessler

We, the Horizon staff of 1973, would like to dedicate this edition of the Horizon to Dr. Henry Kessler, our advisor.

Dr. Kessler has been on the faculty at York College since the fall of 1968. He's an Associate Professor in the Business Administration Department.

Dr. Kessler, whose qualifications and achievements are too numerous to list, has not only been a fantastic professor, but he has also been a close friend to many of the students here.

Some of his activities at York College have included faculty advisor to the Student Senate, the Senior Class of 1973, the Veteran's Fraternity, the Horizon, and Tau Sigma Sigma. He has also served on many faculty committees.

Thank you, Dr. Kessler, for being the dedicated professor, good friend, and great man that you are!

A high-contrast, black and white photograph of a pool deck. A dark, rectangular sign is mounted on a light-colored, textured surface, likely concrete or stone. The sign features the text "NO STREET SHOES ON POOL DECK" in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. The background is heavily stylized with high contrast, showing dark, irregular shapes that suggest architectural elements or shadows. The overall aesthetic is graphic and minimalist.
